NBT BANCORP, CNB BANCORP ANNOUNCE REGULATORY APPROVAL OF MERGER

NORWICH, N.Y., and GLOVERSVILLE, N.Y. (DECEMBER 22, 2005) - NBT Bancorp Inc. (NBT) (NASDAQ: NBTB) and CNB Bancorp, Inc. (CNB) (OTC Bulletin Board: CNBI) announced today that they have received required regulatory approvals for their proposed merger transaction. NBT has received required regulatory approvals from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the New York State Banking Department to acquire CNB and its subsidiary, City National Bank and Trust Company.

The merger, which has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of NBT and CNB, is subject to approval by CNB's shareholders. CNB will hold a special meeting of its shareholders at 4:00 p.m., local time, on Wednesday, February 8, 2006, to vote on the proposed merger with NBT. All CNB shareholders of record as of December 20, 2005, are entitled to vote on the transaction. The parties anticipate that the transaction will close on or about February 10, 2006, subject to approval by CNB's shareholders and the satisfaction of other closing conditions.

The total transaction is valued at approximately $89 million. Under the terms of the merger agreement announced June 14, 2005, CNB shareholders will be given the opportunity to elect to receive either $38.00 in cash or 1.64 shares of NBT common stock for each share of CNB common stock, subject to election and proration procedures that provide, among other things, that the aggregate consideration will be 55% stock and 45% cash. Cost savings have been identified that NBT expects will make the proposed merger accretive to NBT earnings per share within the first year.

"We are pleased to receive the required regulatory approvals for the merger of NBT and CNB," said NBT President Martin A. Dietrich. "We believe the time is right to join forces to match the banking philosophy, services and market areas we already have in common."

CNB Chairman and President William N. Smith said, "NBT and CNB both have a long history of serving their customers and communities. NBT is committed to working with CNB customers to make this transition as seamless as possible and to providing the high level of service our customers have come to expect."
